of Murder A Night

Rules in the Manor of Fernwood

Whether this is your first murder mystery experience or your fortieth, each murder mystery experience is different and has different rules pertaining. Here are some tips to review to help make sure the night is an unforgettable experience.

Read Your Character Sheet—This contains your identity and all the information you will need to play your part.

Don't Reveal Everything About Your Character—While there are many things that everyone needs to know about you, there are some things that should remain secret. Use your discretion as to not give too much away-- you may find out at the party that you are the killer indeed!

Dress The Part— It's a proven fact that the more into character you are the easier it will be for you to truly enjoy all the aspects of the night. In addition, it adds to the excitement, the photo opportunities, and your chance to be voted best dressed.

Review the Announcements—Included in this invite will be the castle announcements. Review this page for it includes background information (such as the other characters attending the party) that may come in useful the night of the party.

Use Your Money Creatively—Upon arrival, you will receive 10 gold coins to spend any way you choose. Bribery and blackmail are two of the most common uses we found (and highly encouraged). The wealthiest player at the end of the night will also receive an award for their ability to turn a profit.

Hear ye! Hear ye! All ye Kings and Queens, Knights and Nobles, Serfs and Servants!

A tournament celebration is planned to honor the noble marriage of Baron Bartholomew to Lady Diana of Dunnsberry in the manor of Fernwood. As a member of the manor, you are not only invited to the festivities, but your attendance is required by the request of your lord.

Whether it is to see a joust between two knights or to partake in the ale and entertainment, your business is your own... that is until you find yourself in the middle of a murder.

With only one night to find the guilty party you will soon figure out that there is a lot more at stake, for murder in the manor is punishable by death. Whether you are guilty or not, there will be others trying to finger you as the culprit as you try to find the real murderer-- only you can defend your innocence. Whom do you trust? Who will betray you before the night is through? Everyone is a suspect and no one is safe in this mystery of medieval madness.

Be careful in attending. Your life will depend not only on your innocence, but your ability to defend it.

The Wedding & Tournament will be held on
