Murder Among The Mateys

Rules At The Salty Sea Dog

Whether this is your first murder mystery experience or your fortieth, each murder mystery experience is different and has different rules pertaining. Here are some tips to review to help make sure the night is an unforgettable experience.

Read Your Character Sheet–This contains your identity and all the information you will need to play your part.

Don't Reveal Everything About Your Character–While there are many things that everyone needs to know about you, there are some things that should remain secret. Use your discretion as to not give too much away--you may find out at the party that you are the killer indeed!

Dress The Part–It's a proven fact that the more into character you are, the easier it will be for you to truly enjoy all the aspects of the night. In addition, it adds to the excitement, the photo opportunities, and your chance to be voted best dressed. Please see www.nightofmystery.com for costume ideas.

Review The Port Royal Preview–Included in this invite will be The Port Royal Preview. Be sure to look over The Preview–it includes background information on the other guests attending the party. This information may come in useful the night of the party.

Use Your Money Creatively–Upon arrival, you will receive some money to spend any way you choose. Bribery and blackmail are two of the most common uses we found (and highly encouraged). The wealthiest player at the end of the night will also receive an award for their ability to turn a profit.

Ahoy there, Matey!

After a voyage filled with pillaging and plundering, The Jaded Jewel—a pirate ship captained by Redbeard, an old but dangerous pirate—is docked in a cove near Port Royal. As the pirates head into town to celebrate their homecoming and spend their gold and goods, a night of turmoil and trouble is sure to transpire.

As the night quickly steers out of control, one guest meets a tragic demise and ends up in Davy Jones' Locker leaving the rest of the party goers to bring the guilty to the gallows.

Is the culprit the profiteering pirate organizing a mutiny? Or, the saucy sea mistress who wanted more than a casual commitment? The perpetrator could be the swashbuckling swordsman desperate to win the love of the governor's daughter, or possibly the treasure seeking seaperson incapable of sharing.

In a harbor village filled with backstabbers and buccaneers looking to get ahead, there is little reward for honesty and a high price to pay for deceit.
