

A night of mystery and mayhem in the Wild West

MURDER AT THE DEADWOOD SALOON

It's the 1st Annual Deadwood Poker Tournament Party!

For weeks, people have been pouring into the small western town of Deadwood for the biggest poker tournament this side of the Mississippi. From outlaws to marshals to saloon girls, the vast array of visitors and residents of Deadwood have made this small western frontier town THE place to be.

As the festivities of the poker tournament conclude, a celebration party is planned at the Deadwood Saloon to award the prize money for the tournament and to celebrate what is hoping to be a very financially successful venture for the saloon.

With a smattering of bandits, bankers, saloon girls, gamblers, east coast debutantes, and a few of the locals, this is guaranteed to make for a very interesting evening indeed.

You would be a fool to miss this celebration!

HOST GUIDE

THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING MURDER AT THE DEADWOOD SALOON.

I am confident that you will find this comprehensive packet to provide everything that you will want and need to run your very own murder-mystery party—one that will have your guests talking about it for weeks, if not longer.

This murder-mystery experience is designed to be easy to run and fun to play for all the guests involved. The game is played with all of your guests having active roles in the game and each guest having objectives to complete. These objectives keep the party from being pre-scripted and allow your guests to draw their own conclusions as to the motives and to the murderer. This format also allows for great mingling amongst your guests and insures that all of your guests feel included. Before the night is through, each guest will have discovered that they have a motive for killing the victim and be inclined to protect their innocence as well as seek out the murderer. Also, to add to the experience and suspense of the night, the murder happens during the party, not before, as is the case in some other murder-mystery games. The victim is also allowed to play along after they ‘die’ for they have no clue who murdered them. Murder at The Deadwood Saloon is guaranteed to be a hit with all of your guests.

Prepared in the following pages, is a simple list of things you need to do as host in order to have the party run smoothly. Once the party is going, it is up to the guests to make the most of it— something you will be surprised at how well they do.

ASSIGNING THE CHARACTERS:

- You, as host, will need to decide upon a character for each of your guests. The easiest way to assign the characters is to read the character descriptions and match each character with the guest that you feel suits that particular character the best.
- If you choose NOT to know the murderer, you can simply choose NOT to read the character descriptions or examine the evidence before the party. This will allow you to play along with everyone else , but will not allow you read the descriptions when assigning the characters. (You can find a short list of the characters with descriptions on the next page)
- Who should you (as host) be? It is up to you and how active of a role you want to play in the mystery. Some hosts want to be very active and choose themselves to be Harry or Henrietta High-Stakes. Others prefer to take a lesser role and concentrate more on facilitating. The marshal is another good role to have for the host to ensure facilitation and it can be played by either a male or female.
- Because this party is dependent on a minimum number of people showing up, you may want to find out ahead of time if people are available before assigning characters.
 - It is recommended that you send out the general invite and the manor announcements with an RSVP date of two weeks before the party. After your guests RSVP positive, you can send them their character sheet. You can download invites here: <http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations.php>
- It is important that you have a minimum of guests for this version of the game. If you are short of maximum number of guests, the game can be played without the following characters: (this information will be included when you purchase, but is not on the site to keep others from cheating!)
- The killer will not know they are the murderer until they open their second envelope at the party.
- The victim will not know they are the victim until they get to the party.
- Good suggestions for assigning couples include: (information will be included when you purchase!)

HOST GUIDE

MAKING THE INVITATIONS:

Before the party, each guest must receive three things: (1) the invitation, (2) The Deadwood Gazette and (3) their character description. You can download the email invitations from the site (which contain this information) and email them to your guests, or you can print and send them out, following the instructions below.

THE INVITATION

- First input your party details into the invite page. Then, print out the number of invites that you need onto 8.5" x 11" paper and fold each invite in quarters.
- Invite should fit nicely into an invitation sized envelope (4 3/8" x 5 3/4").

THE DEADWOOD GAZETTE

- If you wish for The Deadwood Gazette to be more authentic, you can photocopy or print it onto newsprint.

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

- You need to assign each guest a character to be at the party. (See the previous sections)
- You may also utilize the downloadable invitations provided for you on the website after purchase. Each invitation is a pdf that has the above information for each character. This allows you to email your guests their information directly without having to print and mail the information. Please keep in mind that there is not a place to enter in the date, time or address of the party within the emailable invite, so you will have to inform your guests of that information in another fashion.

PREPARING FOR THE PARTY:

- Make name tags for the guests. (You can print out the name tags onto adhesive label paper, or print out on regular paper and include a pin with the name tags so that the guests can secure them to their outfits.) Name tag template is compatible with most label paper for 4" x 2" labels. Note: Make sure your printer is set to print at 100% and NOT at "print to fit" or "print to scale".
- Photocopy the print out of the money onto green paper. You will need as many copies as there are guests attending. Trim out the money and bundle them in packages of $500.
—To skip this step, you can purchase fake/play money rather inexpensively at a novelty or party store.
- Cut the objective sheets in half on the dashed lines.
- Label two envelopes with each character's name. Label one envelope with an (A) and one with a (B) for each character. On the (B) envelope, also put "DO NOT open until AFTER the murder".

In the (A) envelopes, place: a name tag, safety pin(s) to adhere the name tag, a bundle of money, the left side of the character's objective sheet that has objectives for the beginning of the party.

In the (B) envelopes, place: the right side of the objective sheet for each character which has objectives for after the murder happens.

Seal the (B) envelopes and mark on them "DO NOT OPEN UNTIL AFTER THE MURDER".

Have the (A) and (B) envelopes on hand to give to the guests as they arrive.

- Place the remaining evidence in a separate envelope along with the Evidence Presentation. Label it as Evidence. — Depending on the size of your party, you may want to make multiple copies of the evidence to make it easier when your guests are examining it.
- Place the solution in a sealed envelope and label it solution.
- Keep the copy of the introduction, the investigation explanation, the evidence envelope and the solution envelope in a safe place where you can hand them out throughout the night to the guests as they need them.
- Make copies of the "Who Dunit" voting sheets and cut the pages into quarters along the dashed lines.
- Make copies of the smoking gun award, as there may be multiple people who guess the murderer.
— You can print or photocopy the certificates onto parchment paper for a more official look.

SCHEDULE

- Most likely, the length of the party will take 2-4 hours. The party length will depend on a number of factors, such as the number of guests attending, if you are serving dinner, how well your guests mingle, etc.
- The party may be longer if you choose to serve dinner, although much of the mingling done during Stage 2 may be done at the dinner table as well.
- Because the party is not pre-scripted, but set up in stages, as host it is important to observe the guests' behavior and move onto the next stage when you feel it is most appropriate. This will give everyone enough time to enjoy all aspects of the party and enable it to move along at an enjoyable pace.

STAGE 1: THE GUESTS ARRIVE

- Have the guest's name tags, bundle of money and their (A) and (B) envelopes available for them.

STAGE 2: INTRODUCTION

- After all the guests have arrived, hand Harry High-Stakes the introduction and have him read it aloud.
- Have time for guests to mingle and complete their objectives.
 - This may require 30-60 minutes depending on how well your guests know each other.
 - If serving dinner, this may be a good time for dinner to be served.

STAGE 3: THE MURDER & INVESTIGATION

- When guests start to settle down and you are sure the victim has completed all of their objectives, let Harry High-Stakes know so that he can award the purse for the gambling tournament.
- As Harry is about to make his presentation, arrange for the lights to go off and a cap gun to be shot off or a loud noise to sound.
- After the victim has "died", hand Marshal Dalton tape or chalk, so that they can outline the position of the body on the floor or ground.
- Have Marshal Dalton read the sheet explaining the Investigation.
- The guests will open their (B) envelopes which will have new information and objectives for the guests to complete now that the murder has occurred.

STAGE 4: EVIDENCE PRESENTATION

- When guests have settled down again, Marshal Dalton has collected all of his evidence and you feel as though most people have completed their objectives, hand Marshal Dalton the evidence packet so that they can present the findings of the evidence at the crime scene to the guests.
- It is best if the evidence is then laid on a table so that everyone may see it.
- Give your guests additional time to review the evidence. You may want to make multiple copies of the evidence so that it can be seen by everyone.
- Hand out the 'Who Dunit' answer sheets and ask everyone to complete them and hand them back to you during this time.

STAGE 5: THE SOLUTION

- When all the 'Who Dunit' sheets are handed in, hand the Marshal the solution and have them read it aloud to the guests.
- Using the tally sheet included, calculate who the winners are and award the certificates.

Celebration Party THE Place To Be

With the 1st Annual Poker Tournament in town here, there has been a swelting of visitors and residents milling around town this week. As the tournament dwindles down, the anticipation for the celebration party only grows. The party is planned to take place tonight at the Deadwood Saloon, Friday, October 20, 1874. The party is planned to reward the prize money to the winner and to celebrate the success of the tournament. Many of the visitors as well as the locals will be in attendance. Among those that are expected are:

Harry High-Stakes: Owner of the Deadwood Saloon. As the organizer of this grand event, Harry has a lot at stake if it is not successful!

Henrietta High-Stakes: Wife to Harry High-Stakes. Although she has been spending less and less time at the saloon lately, could she be into something or someone else?

Anna Belle: Wife to Gambling Jack. Some say Anna Belle is the reason Gambling Jack always wins.

Mitch Maverick: Business man from the East. As the winner of the tournament, many question how a businessman could have such great card skills. Is he the next poker phenomenon?

Holly Hickok: Gambler. Holly is a real southern belle with a flare for poker. What is a girl like this doing in the Wild West?

Clay Coldwell: Local resident of Deadwood and once-known poker great. Although Clay has never met Mitch Maverick, the two of them seem awful close after only knowing each other only a week.

Sheriff Sam: Sheriff of Deadwood. Although Sam is considered the law enforcement of this town, it has been said the only way to get anything 'enforced' is by offering him a bribe.

Montgomery Money: An investor from the East. Montgomery is in Deadwood on a business trip and rumor has it that he has his eye on purchasing the saloon. Montgomery just arrived last night for the party.

Elizabeth Money: Wife of Montgomery Money. Elizabeth has been here all week scouting out the land that her husband hopes to develop. Elizabeth is still not used to such rough and rugged ways.

Minnie Money: Debutante. As the sheltered daughter of Montgomery and Elizabeth Money, this is her first experience out West. Minnie's trip has taught her a lot about the wild ways of life and the men it breeds.

Banker Bob: Bank of Deadwood owner. After Bob's bank was robbed this week, Bob suspects the culprit is someone in need of ante money for the poker tournament. Will Bob take justice into his own hands to punish the bandit?

Taffy Garrett: Saloon girl. Taffy is the eyes and ears of the saloon, someone who might know a little too much about what is about to go down.

Jesse Wales: An outlaw and old comrade of Harry's. Is Jesse here to meet up with old acquaintances or is this purely a business trip?

Black Barbara: Outlaw. Barbara's been in town all week and no one knows quite why.

REWARD
$5,000

For information about the bandit who robbed the Deadwood Bank earlier this week. Information MUST lead to apprehension or death of the bandit. Please see Banker Bob.

Poker Tourn Draws Far, But Not Wide

The draw for this tournament has been a huge success, with gamblers coming from all parts of the Union. Poker greats such as Holly Hickok and Gambling Jack have made their way up from the South and we have even seen some faces from the East make their way to these parts to join in on the fun. While the gambling talent has reached record highs for these parts, the actual number of gamblers is not as abundant as anticipated. Some believe that the caliber of gambling talent is so great that most amateur gamblers chose not to compete. Others speculate that with a $2,500 ante, the stakes were just too high for the average gambler. Of course, the $100,000 purse is the highest known pay-out at this time.

Sample Character Description Taken From Another Mystery

Elizabeth the Elaborate

You are a vassal woman on the manor of Fernwood. Being a vassal, you were granted land by the lord and you have serfs and peasants work the land for you. In payment for the land granted to you, you give a percentage of your earnings to the king in taxes and provide security to the lord if the manor is ever in danger from invaders. You have raised your daughter, Maid Victoria, by yourself ever since your husband died in battle over ten years ago.

Until recently, you enjoy being part of the manor of Fernwood. Over the past year, the sheriff has started demanding higher taxes for the king. Previously, the sheriff had been collecting taxes at the rate of 10%, but now insists the king has raised the tax rate to 15%. You intend to talk to the king about the tax increase when he arrives on the manor. You suspect that King Kyle and Queen Genevieve will be visiting Fernwood for the jousting tournament which is being thrown in celebration of the noble marriage between Lord Taylor's son, Baron Bartholomew and Lady Diana of Dunnsberry.

Among other things, you hope to talk to Lord Taylor about your daughter's future. You have heard that he has intentions of arranging a marriage between your daughter, Maid Victoria, and Sir Rufus. Sir Rufus is a knight that is relatively new to the manor, but you do not trust what you hear and know of him. The less fortunate peasants have said that he is terrorizing them when they cannot pay the higher taxes that the sheriff is now collecting. What a horrible man!

You do not want to dishonor your lord by questioning his rule, but you do not want your daughter to have to marry a man who terrorizes peasants in the name of the king. You are apprehensive because speaking out against Sir Rufus may jeopardize your own safety. You will have to quickly find another reason to tell Lord Taylor that you do not wish Victoria to be married to Sir Rufus, the tournament and celebration is almost here!

Acting and Dressing Your Part: You are a vassal woman who speaks her mind to others. You are not a noble, but you are one of the more wealthier families in the manor. You have nicer clothes (brightly colored dresses made of expensive fabrics like silk and velvet) and some jewels.
