

Rules at the Wedding Reception

Whether this is your first murder mystery experience or your fortieth, each murder mystery experience is different and has different rules pertaining. Here are some tips to review to help make sure the night is an unforgettable experience.

Read Your Character Sheet— This contains your identity and all the information you will need to play your part.

Don't Reveal Everything About Your Character— While there are many things that everyone needs to know about you, there are some things that should remain secret. Use your discretion as to not give too much away-- you may find out at the party that you are the killer indeed!

Dress The Part— It's a proven fact that the more into character you are the easier it will be for you to truly enjoy all the aspects of the night. In addition, it adds to the excitement, the photo opportunities, and your chance to be voted best dressed. See www.nightofmystery.com/extras.htm for costume ideas & resources.

Review the Program— Included in this invite will be wedding program. Review this program, it includes background information on the other characters attending the party. This information that may come in useful the night of the party.

Use Your Money Creatively— Upon arrival, you will receive some money to spend any way you choose. Bribery and blackmail are two of the most common uses we found (and highly encouraged). The wealthiest player at the end of the night will also receive an award for their ability to turn a profit.

Your presence is requested to celebrate the union of Becky Giovanni to Stanley Simpson with a wedding reception you won't ever forget.

As friends and family come together for a night of food and fun, it will quickly turn into a night of mystery and mayhem—leaving one of the guests murdered! And you to solve the crime...

Will it be the jealous ex-boyfriend who is to blame? The father of the bride who opposed the marriage from the start? Could it be the bridesmaid who longs to be a bride? Or possibly the estranged uncle that has wasted away his family fortune?

As the night progresses, secrets will be revealed, motives exposed and your sleuthing skills will be put to the test. What will you say when it is your turn to finger the culprit?

Speak now or forever a killer goes free.
