Rules At The Homecoming Dance

Whether this is your first murder mystery experience or your fortieth, each murder mystery experience is different and has different rules pertaining. Here are some tips to review to help make sure the night is an unforgettable experience.

Read Your Character Sheet—This contains your identity and all the information you will need to play your part.

Don't Reveal Everything About Your Character—While there are many things that everyone needs to know about you, there are some things that should remain secret. Use your discretion as to not give too much away—you may find out at the party that you are the killer indeed!

Dress The Part—It's a proven fact that the more into character you are, the easier it will be for you to truly enjoy all the aspects of the night. In addition, it adds to the excitement, the photo opportunities, and your chance to be voted best dressed. See www.nightofmystery.com for costume ideas.

Review The Mayhem High Herald—Included in this invite will be The Mayhem High Herald. Be sure to review The Herald—it includes background information on the other guests attending the party. This information may come in useful the night of the party.

Use Your Money Creatively—Upon arrival, you will receive some money to spend any way you choose. Bribery and blackmail are two of the most common uses we found (and highly encouraged). The wealthiest player at the end of the night will also receive an award for their ability to turn a profit.

The future is bright for the seniors at Mayhem High.

In the midst of a winning football season, school pride is running rampant at the high school. Not only is competition fierce on the football field, but the students are battling it out for grades, popularity, affection, class ranking as well as the coveted homecoming king and queen title. With so much excitement surrounding the election, everyone is planning on being in attendance at the dance to see who will be crowned royalty.

Will it be the class president who is looking to extend his reign past the student council? The pom pom captain who has used her moves to land more than a homecoming court nomination? Or possibly the math team captain who is desperate to win at something other than a math meet.

While competition breeds excellence, it will also make one guest commit an act of vengeance...

At the dance, the sinister will shimmy among the sinless and try to go unnoticed. With their futures on the line, it will be up to the students and staff of Mayhem High to make sure the felon does not go free.
