Host Guide

Thank you for choosing Murder at The Juice Joint

We are confident you will find this comprehensive packet to provide everything you will want and need to run your very own murder mystery party—one that will have your guests talking about it for weeks, if not longer.

This murder mystery experience is designed to be easy to run and fun to play for all the guests involved. The game is played with all of your guests having active roles in the game and each guest having objectives to complete. These objectives keep the party from being pre-scripted and allow your guests to draw their own conclusions as to the motives and the identity of the murderer. This format also allows for great mingling among your guests and ensures that all of your guests feel included. Before the night is through, each guest will have discovered that they have a motive for killing the victim and be inclined to protect their innocence as well as seek out the murderer. To add to the experience and suspense of the night, the murder happens during the party, not before, as in some other murder mystery games. The victim is also allowed to play along after they 'die' since they have no clue who murdered them. Murder at The Juice Joint is certain to be a hit with all of your guests.

The following pages contain a simple list of things you need to do as host in order to have the party run smoothly. Once the party is going, it is up to the guests to make the most of it—something you will be surprised at how well they do.

Assigning the Characters

- You, as host, will need to decide upon a character for each of your guests. The easiest way to assign the characters is to read the character descriptions and match each character with the guest that you feel suits that particular character the best.
- If you choose NOT to know the murderer, you can simply choose NOT to read the character descriptions or examine the evidence before the party. While you will be able to play along with everyone else, you will not be able to read the descriptions when assigning the characters. (You will find a short list of the characters with descriptions on the next page.)
- Because this party is dependent on a minimum number of people showing up, you may want to determine ahead of time which guests are attending before assigning characters.
 - It is recommended that you send out the general invite and an RSVP date of two weeks before the party. After your guests RSVP positive, you can send them their character sheet.
- The killer will not know they are the murderer until they open their second envelope at the party.
- The victim will not know they are the victim until they get to the party. The victim will not have a list of objectives for after the murder. If the victim wishes to play along after the murder, they can do so without an identity. If you have an extra identity (that is, a role that is not being played), they can also assume that identity if they so choose.
- What happens with less than the minimum number of guests? Information included with your mystery purchase.
- P.I. Pinkerton, Bernie Booze, Gino Gin and Chief Cameron can be played by a male or female guest.
- Is this mystery suitable for youth and/or church groups? No. This mystery contains references to alcohol, as well as references to a few extramarital affairs. Our site offers "clean" versions of a few other mysteries on our site: www.nightofmystery.com. Please refer to those when hosting a party for a more conservative crowd.
- Good suggestions for assigning couples include: Included with your mystery purchase.

Host Guide

Making the Invitations

Before the party, each guest must receive three things: (1) the invitation, (2) The Gangster Gazette and (3) their character description.

The Print Option:

THE INVITATION

- To make the invitations, first input your party details into the invite page.
- Print out the number of invites that you need onto 8.5" x 11" paper and fold each invite in quarters.
- Invite should fit nicely into an invitation sized envelope (4 3/8" x 5 3/4").

THE GANGSTER GAZETTE

- This will provide information on the other guests at the party.
- There are two copies of the Gazette included in this master document - you only need to send one.
- If you wish for the newspaper to be more authentic, you can photocopy or print the black and white version onto newsprint.

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

- You need to assign each guest a character to play at the party. (See the previous sections.)

The Download and Email Option:

- Following your purchase of the party, you may also access and use the downloadable character descriptions from our website.
- Each description is a pdf file containing the above information for each character.
- This option allows you to email each of your guests their character description without having to print and mail the information.
- Please remember, the pdf file option does not include a place to enter the date, time or address of the party, so you will have to inform or remind your guests of the party location details in another fashion.
- For this, we do have downloadable, emailable invitations that can be found at: <http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations.php>.

Host Guide

Preparing the Materials for the Party

- Cut out and make name tags for the guests. (You can print out the name tags onto adhesive label paper or print out on regular paper and include a pin with the name tags so that the guests can secure them to their outfits.) Name tag template is compatible with Avery labels 15163, 18163, 5163, 5263, 5523, 5663, 5963, 8163, 8253, 8463, 8663, 8763.
- Photocopy the print out of the money onto green paper. You will need as many copies as there are guests attending. Trim out the money and bundle them in packages of $500.
—To skip this step, you can purchase fake/play money rather inexpensively at a novelty or party store and use the fake/play money instead of the paper money.
- Cut the objective sheets in half on the dashed lines.
- Label two envelopes with each character's name. Label one envelope with an (A) and one with a (B) for each character. On the (B) envelope, also put "DO NOT open until AFTER the murder."

In the (A) envelopes, place: a name tag, safety pin(s) to adhere the name tag, a bundle of money, the left side of the character's objective sheet that has objectives for the beginning of the party.

In the (B) envelopes, place: the right side of the objective sheet for each character which has objectives for after the murder happens.

Have the (A) & (B) envelopes on hand to give to the guests as they arrive.

- In a separate envelope place the Evidence Presentation. Label it as "Evidence."
- Place the solution in a sealed envelope and label it "Solution."
- Keep the "introduction," the "investigation instructions," the "evidence envelope" and the "solution envelope" in a safe and convenient location so you can hand them out throughout the night as guests need them.
- Make enough copies of the Who Dunit voting sheets for the number of guests you have coming. Cut the pages into quarters along the dashed lines.
- Make copies of the smoking gun award, as there may be multiple people who guess the murderer.
 - You can print or photocopy the certificates onto parchment paper for a more official look.
 - You can input the names of the winners into the awards before printing the certificates.

"Party Tips" section at www.nightofmystery.com

Party Schedule

- Most likely, the length of the party will take 2-4 hours. The party length will depend on a number of factors, including how well your guests know each other, if you are serving dinner, how well your guests mingle, etc.
- The party may be longer if you choose to serve dinner, although much of the mingling done during Stage 2 may be done at the dinner table as well.
- Because the party is not pre-scripted, but set up in stages, as host it is important to observe the guests' behavior and move onto the next stage when you feel it is most appropriate. This will give everyone enough time to enjoy all aspects of the party and enable it to move along at an enjoyable pace.

Stage One: The Guests Arrive

- Have the guests (A) and (B) envelopes available for them.

Stage Two: Introduction

- After all of the guests have arrived, hand Rosie Marie the Introduction and have her read it aloud to everyone.
- Have time for guests to mingle and complete their objectives.
 - This may require 30-60 minutes depending on how well your guests know each other.
 - If serving dinner, this may be a good time for dinner to be served.

Stage Three: Murder & Investigation

- When guests start to settle down and you are sure the victim has completed all of their objectives, (more information included in the purchased mystery what will happen here).
- Arrange for the lights to go off and a loud noise to sound (like a cap gun).
- When the lights come back on, the victim will be dead.
- Give P.I. Pinkerton (the private investigator) tape, so that they can outline the position of the body on the floor.
- Have P.I. Pinkerton read the sheet explaining the Investigation.
- The guests will open their (B) envelopes which will have new information and objectives for the guests to complete now that the murder has occurred.

Stage Four: Evidence Presentation

- When guests have settled down again, P.I. Pinkerton has collected all of their evidence and you feel as though most people have completed their objectives, hand P.I. Pinkerton the evidence packet so that they can present the findings of the evidence at the crime scene to the guests.
- It is best if the evidence is then laid on a table so that everyone may see it.
- Give your guests additional time to review the evidence. You may want to make multiple copies of the evidence so that it can be seen by everyone.
- Hand out the 'Who Dunit' answer sheets and ask everyone to complete them and hand them back to you during this time.

Stage Five: The Solution

- When all the 'Who Dunit' sheets are handed in, ask P.I. Pinkerton to read the solution aloud to the guests.
- Using the tally sheet included, calculate who the winners are and award the certificates.

P.I. Pinkerton—Investigator. As the private detective on the scene, P.I.'s job will be to take charge and decipher the clues and reveal the truth.

Missing Person Found Dead

Three weeks after the disappearance of Louie Marie, Mr. Marie's body was found floating in the river. "Due to the bullets lodged in Mr. Marie's skull, foul play has been suspected," Chief Cameron stated. At this time no one has been apprehended for the murder of Louie Marie and according to the police, there is very little evidence to prove who committed the crime.

Louie was the original owner of The Juice Joint, a family-owned establishment. Louie leaves behind his wife, Rosie, daughter, Anna, and nephew, Cy Ramsey. The Juice Joint will remain open and the ownership has been transferred to his wife Rosie Marie. "It's what Louie would have wanted," said Rosie.

New Governor Needed

With the statewide death toll the highest in recorded history and organized crime on the rise, the Governor has announced he will not be running for re-election. "It is difficult to speculate who will step up to take on the leadership of the state. What is for certain is that the next set of candidates will have to have a history of being tough on organized crime if they hope to win the election," stated political analyst, Bill Bosworth.

Murder at The Juice Joint

Sample Character Description Taken From Another Mystery

Elizabeth the Elaborate

You are a vassal woman on the manor of Fernwood. Being a vassal, you were granted land by the lord and you have serfs and peasants work the land for you. In payment for the land granted to you, you give a percentage of your earnings to the king in taxes and provide security to the lord if the manor is ever in danger from invaders. You have raised your daughter, Maid Victoria, by yourself ever since your husband died in battle over ten years ago.

Until recently, you enjoy being part of the manor of Fernwood. Over the past year, the sheriff has started demanding higher taxes for the king. Previously, the sheriff had been collecting taxes at the rate of 10%, but now insists the king has raised the tax rate to 15%. You intend to talk to the king about the tax increase when he arrives on the manor. You suspect that King Kyle and Queen Genevieve will be visiting Fernwood for the jousting tournament which is being thrown in celebration of the noble marriage between Lord Taylor's son, Baron Bartholomew and Lady Diana of Dunnsberry.

Among other things, you hope to talk to Lord Taylor about your daughter's future. You have heard that he has intentions of arranging a marriage between your daughter, Maid Victoria, and Sir Rufus. Sir Rufus is a knight that is relatively new to the manor, but you do not trust what you hear and know of him. The less fortunate peasants have said that he is terrorizing them when they cannot pay the higher taxes that the sheriff is now collecting. What a horrible man!

You do not want to dishonor your lord by questioning his rule, but you do not want your daughter to have to marry a man who terrorizes peasants in the name of the king. You are apprehensive because speaking out against Sir Rufus may jeopardize your own safety. You will have to quickly find another reason to tell Lord Taylor that you do not wish Victoria to be married to Sir Rufus, the tournament and celebration is almost here!

Acting and Dressing Your Part: You are a vassal woman who speaks her mind to others. You are not a noble, but you are one of the more wealthier families in the manor. You have nicer clothes (brightly colored dresses made of expensive fabrics like silk and velvet) and some jewels.
