Murder of a Millionaire

A Night of Mystery and Intrigue Worth Millions

You may be an heir to the estate.

Your presence is requested at Mystery Manor for an evening filled with murder and mystery in order to commemorate the death of the late millionaire, Rick A. Rochester.

Among Rick's dying wishes, he wanted his will reading to be a party thrown in his honor to gather together those most important in his life. Between Rick's eccentric ex-wife to his spying servants and the provocative pool boy, it seems that everyone has a chance of inheriting a piece of this millionaire's estate.

As one of Rick's closest confidants or family members, it is your help that is needed to piece together the mystifying death of Mr. Rochester, and to avoid being the victim of yet another murder as you attend his will reading.

Use caution in considering your involvement in this gathering, for as likely as it is that you will walk away with a great deal of inheritance, you are also just as likely not to walk out at all!

Host Guide

Thank You for choosing Murder of a Millionaire

We are confident that you will find this comprehensive packet to provide everything that you will want and need to run your very own murder mystery party—one that will have your guests talking about it for weeks, if not longer.

This murder mystery experience is designed to be easy to run and fun to play for all the guests involved. The game is played with all of your guests having active roles in the game and each guest having objectives to complete. These objectives keep the party from being pre-scripted and allow your guests to draw their own conclusions as to the motives and the identity of the murderer. This format also allows for great mingling amongst your guests and insures that all of your guests feel included. Before the night is through, each guest will have discovered that they have a motive for killing the victim and be inclined to protect their innocence as well as seek out the murderer. To add to the experience and suspense of the night, the murder happens during the party, not before, as in some other murder mystery games. The victim is also allowed to play along after they 'die', since they have no clue who murdered them. Murder of a Millionaire is certain to be a hit with all of your guests.

The following pages contain a simple list of things you need to do as host in order to have the party run smoothly. Once the party is going, it is up to the guests to make the most of it—something you will be surprised at how well they do.

Assigning The Characters

- You, as host, will need to decide upon a character for each of your guests. The easiest way to assign the characters is to read the character descriptions and match each character with the guest that you feel suits that particular character the best.
- If you choose NOT to know the murderer, you can simply choose NOT to read the character sheets, the solution or examine the evidence before the party. This will allow you to play along with everyone else, but will not allow you read the sheets with lengthy descriptions for the guests when assigning the characters. (You can find a short list of the characters with descriptions on the next page.)
- Because this party is dependent on a minimum number of people showing up, you may want to find out ahead of time if people are available before assigning characters.
 - One way to do this is to send out the general invite with an RSVP date of two weeks before the party. Then when your guests RSVP positive, you can send along their character sheet and additional information.
 - You can find downloadable invitations at: <http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations.php>
- It is important that you have a minimum number of guests for this version of the game. If you are short of the maximum number of guests, the game can be played without the following characters: (information included with actual purchase)
- The killer will not know they are the murderer until they open their second envelope at the party.
- The victim will not know they are the victim until they get to the party. The victim will not have a list of objectives for after the murder. If the victim wishes to play along after the murder, they can do so without an identity. If you have an extra identity, they can also assume that identity if they so choose.
- Is this mystery suitable for youths and/or church groups? No. This mystery contains references to alcohol as well as references to a few extramarital affairs. Our site offers "clean" versions of a few other mysteries on our site: www.nightofmystery.com. Please refer to those when hosting a party for a more conservative crowd.

Preparing the Materials for the Party

- Cut out and make name tags for the guests. (You can print out the name tags onto on adhesive label paper or print out on regular paper and include a pin with the name tags so that the guests can secure them to their outfits.) Name tag template is compatible with most 4" x 2" labels.
- Photocopy the print out of the money onto green paper. You will need as many copies as there are guests attending. Trim out the money and bundle them in packages of $500.
—To add authenticity, you can purchase fake/play money rather inexpensively at a novelty or party store.
- Cut the objective sheets in half on the dashed lines.
- Label two envelopes with each character's name. Label one envelope with an (A) and one with a (B) for each character. On the (B) envelope, also put "Do NOT open until AFTER the murder."

In the (A) envelopes, place: a name tag, safety pin(s) to adhere the name tag, a bundle of money, the left side of the character's objective sheet that has objectives for the beginning of the party.

In the (B) envelopes, place: the right side of the objective sheet for each character which has objectives for after the murder happens.

Have the (A) & (B) envelopes on hand to give to the guests as they arrive.

- In a separate envelope place the Evidence Presentation. Label it as "Evidence."
- Place the solution in a sealed envelope and label it "Solution."
- Keep the "introduction," the "investigation instructions," the "evidence envelope" and the "solution envelope" in a safe and convenient location so you can hand them out throughout the night as guests need them.
- Make enough copies of the Who Dunit voting sheets for the number of guests you have coming. Cut the pages into quarters along the dashed lines.
- Make copies of the smoking gun award, as there may be multiple people who guess the murderer.

Schedule of Events

- There is no direct time line for how long the party takes, it may depend on a number of factors, including how well your guests know each other and how well they mingle.
- The party may be longer if you choose to serve dinner, although much of the mingling done during Stage 2 may be done at the dinner table as well.
- Because the party is not pre-scripted, but set up in stages, as host it is important to observe the guests behavior and move onto the next stage when you feel it is most appropriate. This will give everyone enough time to enjoy all of the aspects of the party as well make it move along at an enjoyable pace.

Stage 1: The Guests Arrive

- You, as host, will need to give each guest their (A) envelope that includes their money, name tag, a safety pin and their objectives for the beginning of the party.

Stage 2: Introduction

- After all the guests have arrived, hand Reilly Ravish the introduction and have them read it to everyone.
- Have time for guests to mingle and complete their first round of objectives
 - This may be as little as a half hour to an hour depending on how well your guests one another.
 - If serving dinner, this may be a good time for dinner to be served.

Stage 3: Will Reading, Murder & Investigation

- When guests start to settle down and you are sure the victim has completed all of their objectives, gather everyone together for the reading of the will
- Hand Reilly Ravish the copy of the will and have them read it to the guests
- Just after Reilly finishes reading the will, arrange for the lights to go off and a cap gun to be shot off or a loud noise to sound.
- When the lights come back on, the victim will be dead and Officer Welsh will instruct everyone of the investigation that is about to take place.
- Give the officer tape, so that they can outline the body.
- You, as host, will hand everyone their second (B) envelope that you have prepared. This envelope will have new information and objectives for the guests to complete now that the murder has occurred.

Stage 4: Evidence Presentation

- When guests have settled down again, and you feel as though most people have completed their objectives, hand the officer the evidence packet you have prepared so that they can present the findings of the evidence at the crime scene to the guests.
- It is best if the evidence is then laid on a table so that everyone may see it.
- Give your guests additional time to review the evidence.
- Hand out and have everyone fill out the 'Who Dunit' answer sheets during this time.

Stage 5: The Solution & Awards

- When all the 'Who Dunit' sheets are handed in, hand the officer the solution and have them read it aloud to the guests.
- Calculate who the winners are and award the certificates.

In Loving Memory

RICK A. ROCHESTER

Arrogant Millionaire • Questionable Father • (Un) Loving Husband • Mysterious Master

It is with longing and regret that we say goodbye to one of the most successful businessmen and prominent millionaires ever to grace Madison County, Rick Allen Rochester. The passing of Mr. Rochester is due to an unfortunate event, Mr. Rochester was slain at his own estate.

Rick Rochester was born here in Madison County, where he grew up at Mystery Manor. At the young age of twenty, Rick lost his uncle to an untimely death. It is with the passing of his uncle that Rick gained his millions, including Mystery Manor, an estate of insurmountable wealth. Along with his inheritance, Rick grew his money exponentially over the years by making a name for himself in the business world of art collecting and distributing. Over the years, his gallery has grown to house one of the finest art collections in the world.

As far as the case of his death, "The one solid fact to which a study of evidence inevitably leads us to is that the victim did not commit suicide, and that the death by misadventure is out of the question," says Officer Welsh, the crime scene investigator. The officer went on to say "Rick Rochester was willfully slain by someone he had no reason to fear and he had perfect confidence in." The evidence in this case is very inconclusive and suggests various motives for who the killer may be, but none with concrete certainty. Authorities say that this is a case in which the true evidence cannot possibly be deciphered and the killer revealed by any other than the victim's closest friends and relatives.

In respect for the timeless Mystery Manor, where Rick Rochester both resided and was murdered, and Mr. Rochester's memory, Mr. Rochester's lawyer, Reilly Ravish, has asked that the investigation be postponed until family and friends have had a chance to gather and to pay tribute to Mr. Rochester at Mystery Manor. This gathering will take place at the will reading of the late millionaire.

Among those who survived Mr. Rochester are:

Jessica Rochester – Rick's Ex-wife. A man-izing ex-wife and business partner of the late Rick Rochester. She has had her flings over the years, but can anyone ever really replace her first true love?

Faith Rochester – Rick's Sister. Faith has been living off of Rick's wealth for years. Can she afford her lifestyle now that Rick is gone? Or will it only improve...

Michael Rochester – Rick's Nephew. Michael is expecting to inherit millions—is he as misguided as his mother?

Fabio Fabulous – Pool Boy. A more recent employee acquired by Mrs. Rochester. Fabio was hired to keep the pool, amongst others, in tip-top shape.

Murder of a Millionaire

Sample Character Description

(taken from another mystery)

Banker Bob

As the bank owner in the town of Deadwood, you do business with many of the people in the town and also some of the participants of the Deadwood Poker Tournament. One of your foremost clients is Harry High-Stakes (the Deadwood Saloon owner). In order to get the saloon established and operating in it's first year, you have loaned Harry a substantial amount of money. Although the saloon appears to be doing very well, you are uncertain why Harry is continually delinquent and sometimes misses his payments on his loan. Just last month, Harry was late again on his payment and you warned him that you will have to put his saloon into foreclosure if he cannot repay the money he owes on the loan by next month. You suspect that Harry is throwing the Deadwood Poker Tournament in order to get enough money so that he can repay his debt. This will be an important week to see if you will gain your money back from Harry's loan or if you will gain control over the saloon.

Because Harry is such a difficult and delinquent client, you hope that you will gain control over the saloon. If the saloon becomes the bank's property, you speculate that you may have a very wealthy buyer in Montgomery Money, an investor from the East. Because of Montgomery's reputation, you are certain that you will make a healthy profit off of selling the saloon to Montgomery and he will be consistent and reliable when making his loan payments.

In addition to all the excitement of the tournament, your bank was held up at gun point. Banker Bonnie (your wife) was watching the bank over the noon hour while you were meeting with Harry about his payments. Because of the high ante for the poker tournament, you are convinced that the robber must have been a gambler who was trying to accumulate enough money to pay for the entry fee. Since you view Sheriff Sam (the sheriff) as a very lazy individual, you plan on taking matters into your own hands when it comes to finding the culprit of the bank robbery and bringing them to justice! In addition, you do not believe that Sheriff Sam is a moral character as well. Just this past week, you saw Sheriff Sam taking money from Harry High-Stakes. While you do not know the details of the transaction, the secretive nature in which the money was exchanged suggests that it was not for an honest reason.

As the Deadwood Poker Tournament Party quickly approaches, you are looking forward to attending for a few reasons. First, the party will be a perfect place for you to talk business with Montgomery Money about his intentions on investing in the saloon if your bank gains control of it. Second, you plan to figure out which one of the poker players may have robbed your bank and you plan to bring them to justice! And lastly, by the end of the night, you will know whether Harry will have enough money to pay off his debt to you or if the saloon will be yours!

Acting and Dressing Your Part: As the bank owner of Deadwood, you are a businessman first. Your bank and your money come before everything, including your wife Bonnie. Since you will be using the party to for business matters, you will want to dress dignified for the night. Consistent with the times, you may consider a button down shirt, vest, ascot and hat (bowler, derby, slouch, gambler or other). Popular of the time period, you may also consider adding in facial hair. For more ideas on how to dress and a glossary of wild western words and phrases to use at the party, please see www.nightofmystery.com and murderatthedeadwoodsaloon.com
