All of the underworld is invited to Dracula’s 500th birthday celebration! As the members of the haunting and haunted gather at the desolate Transylvania castle, this will be an evening away from the mortals where the supernatural community can come together to celebrate and carouse!

During the night of spooktacular fun, one of the party-goers will end up in a grave they have dug for themselves. Desperate to avoid becoming victims themselves, the ghoulish guests will seek out the culprit in their midst.

Perhaps the murderer will be the bewitching witch with a cross to bear? A mollified mummy who needs to keep things under wraps? Or possibly a vindictive vampiress who was once bitten twice shy?

What lies ahead is a hauntingly complex night during which the spooky and the spirited collide to solve a mystery designed to leave you spellbound.

IT IS ENOUGH TO HAVE THE SKELETONS SHAKING IN THEIR BONES.
Thank you for choosing Terror in Transylvania

We are confident that you will find this comprehensive packet to provide everything you will want and need to run your very own murder mystery party—one that will have your guests talking about it for weeks, if not longer.

This murder mystery experience is designed to be easy to run and fun to play for all the guests involved. The game is played with all of your guests having active roles in the game and each guest having objectives to complete. These objectives keep the party from being pre-scripted and allow your guests to draw their own conclusions as to the motives and the identity of the murderer. This format also allows for great mingling among your guests and insures all of your guests feel included. Before the night is through, each guest will have discovered that they have a motive for killing the victim and be inclined to protect their innocence as well as seek out the murderer. To add to the experience and suspense of the night, the murder happens during the party, not before, as in some other murder mystery games. The victim is also allowed to play along after they “die,” since they have no clue who murdered them. Terror in Transylvania is certain to be a hit with all of your guests.

The following pages contain a simple list of things you need to do as host in order to have the party run smoothly. Once the party is going, it is up to the guests to make the most of it—something you will be surprised at how well they do.

How To Host Without Knowing the Murderer

We realize that part of the fun of throwing the party is playing along. If you choose to host WITHOUT knowing who the murderer is, simply read and follow the directions in your host’s guide so that you can set the party up correctly AND avoid any spoilers.

ASSIGNING THE CHARACTERS

• As host, you will need to decide upon a character for each of your guests. The easiest way to assign the characters is to read the character descriptions and match each character with the guest you feel suits that particular character the best. They will be listed in this host’s guide, along with a sheet that will help you assign the characters best to your guests.

• Because this party is dependent on a minimum number of people showing up, you will want to determine ahead of time which guests are attending before assigning characters.

• An accurate guest count is important. It is recommended that you send out the general invite with an RSVP date of two weeks before the party. After your guests RSVP positive, you can send them their character sheet.

• You can download an invite at: http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations.php

• The killer will not know they are the murderer until they open their second envelope at the party.

• The victim will not know they are the victim until they get to the party. The victim will not have a list of objectives for after the murder. Also listed in their first set of objectives is to, “fall down dead when the lights go off.”

• The victim after “death”: If the victim wishes to play along after the murder, they can do so without an identity. If you have an extra identity (that is, a role that is not being played), they can also assume that identity if they so choose. *If Grim is not assigned, the victim will assume this role after they have "died."

• Who can I eliminate without ruining the mystery? Information included in mystery purchase.

• If you have eliminated the investigator for your party, then the victim will play the role of Grim for the second half of the party. Following the “death,” the victim will get up and the host can then explain that there will be an investigator for the second half (which will be the victim). The victim/investigator will then read the “investigation directions” to the crowd. You will have prepared the investigator’s “B envelope,” so the guest will know what to do next and how to proceed. Since the investigator’s main role is based after the murder, it is ok if the investigator is eliminated from the first half of the party and only plays the second half. Additionally, the victim does not know who killed them or why, so the victim can assume the role of the investigator for the second half.

• As host, who should I be? This is really a personal decision for you. Since it is their party, some hosts choose to be a main role. In this case, it is also a birthday party for Dracula, so if you are throwing this as a birthday, that would be an obvious choice. However, some hosts choose a more secondary role so that they can more fully attend to their hosting duties. *See Hosting Timeline further in host guide to get a better indication of all that you will need to do the night of the party.

• Ideas for assigning couples: Information included in mystery purchase.

HOSTING TIPS

• Included in Mystery Packet

MAKING THE INVITATIONS

Before the party, each guest must receive three things: (1) the invitation, (2) The Transylvania Times and (3) their character description.

THE PRINT OPTION

THE INVITATION

• To make the invitations, first input your party details into the invite page.
• Print out the number of invites that you need onto 8.5” x 11” paper and fold each invite in quarters.
• Invite should fit nicely into an invitation sized envelope (4 3/8” x 5 3/4”).

THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES

• This will provide information on the other guests at the party.

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

• You need to assign each guest a character to play at the party. (See the previous sections.)

— Invite, Transylvania Times and Character Descriptions are found in the Mystery Materials pdf.

THE DOWNLOAD AND EMAIL OPTION

• Following your purchase of the party, you may also access and use the downloadable character descriptions from our website.
• Each description is a pdf file containing the above information for each character.
• This option allows you to email each of your guests their character description without having to print and mail the information.
• Please remember, the pdf file option does not include a place to enter the date, time or address of the party, so you will have to inform or remind your guests of the party location details in another fashion.
• For this, we do have downloadable, emailable invitations that can be found at: http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations.php

— Downloadable invites, with character descriptions, will be available in your online account after purchase.
PREPARING THE MATERIALS FOR THE PARTY

• It is best to view and print all of your materials from Adobe Reader, a free application. Be sure you do not use a Preview Application to print or view materials.

• For the name tag and label pages (optional), they are best printed on adhesive label paper. Name tag and label pages are compatible with Avery labels 15163, 18163, 5163, 5263, 5523, 5663, 5963, 8163, 8253, 8463, 8663 and 8763.

• Cut out and make name tags for the guests. You can print the name tags onto on adhesive label paper or print on regular paper and include a pin with the name tags so that the guests can secure them to their outfits. Name tag template is compatible with Avery labels 15163, 18163, 5163, 5263, 5523, 5663, 5963, 8163, 8253, 8463, 8663 and 8763.

• Photocopy the printout of the money onto green paper. You will need as many copies as there are guests attending. Trim the money and bundle them in packages of $500.
  —To skip this step, you can purchase fake/play money or coins rather inexpensively at a novelty or party store and use the fake/play money or coins instead of the paper money.
  —It is helpful to bundle your money using a paper clip.

• Cut the “A Objectives” sheets in half on the dashed lines. DO NOT cut the “B Objectives” sheets in half.

• Label two envelopes with each character’s name. Label one envelope with an (A) and one with a (B) for each character. On the (B) envelope, also put “DO NOT OPEN until AFTER the murder.”
  OPTIONAL: We have formatted some labels that you can adhere to your envelopes, so that you will not need to label them yourself. Please see the label pages in the Mystery Materials pdf.

  In the (A) envelopes place: a name tag, safety pin(s) to adhere the name tag, a bundle of money and the half-sheet of the character’s objective sheet that has objectives for the beginning of the party.

  In the (B) envelopes place: the full-sheet objective sheet for each character which has objectives for after the murder happens.

  In addition, place the following:

  -- Included in Mystery Purchase

  • If you have eliminated Grim’s character, you will need to prepare Grim’s “B” envelope. Also insert Grim’s character description and name tag into their envelope. (You do not need to add money, as the guest will have money from the first half of the party.) After “death,” the victim will assume the role of Grim and will need this information.

  • In a separate envelope place Exhibit X and the Investigation sheet. Label it as “Investigation.”

  • In a separate envelope place the Evidence Presentation. Label it as “Evidence.”

  • Place the solution in a sealed envelope and label it “Solution.”

  • Keep the “introduction,” the “investigation envelope,” the “evidence envelope,” and the “solution envelope” in a convenient location so you can hand them out throughout the night as guests need them.

  • Make enough copies of the accusation sheets for the number of guests you have coming. Cut the pages along the dashed lines.

  • Make additional copies of the Smoking Gun Award, as there may be multiple people who guess the murderer.
• Most likely, the party will take 2-4 hours. The party length will depend on a number of factors, including the number of guests, if you are serving dinner, how well your guests mingle, etc.

• The party may be longer if you choose to serve dinner, although much of the mingling done during Stage 2 may be done at the dinner table as well.

• Because the party is not pre-scripted, but set up in stages, as host it is important to observe the guests’ behavior and move onto the next stage when you feel it is most appropriate. This will give everyone enough time to enjoy all aspects of the party and enable it to move along at an enjoyable pace.

Stage One  The Guests Arrive
• Have the guests’ name tags, bundle of money and their (A) and (B) envelopes available for them.

Stage Two  Introduction
• After all of the guests have arrived, hand Dracula the Introduction and have him read it aloud.
• Have time for guests to mingle and complete their objectives.
  • This may require 30-60 minutes depending on how well your guests know each other.
  • If serving dinner, this may be a good time for dinner to be served.

Stage Three  Murder & Investigation
• When guests start to settle down and you are sure the victim has completed all of their objectives, arrange to have the lights go out and a loud gunshot or “bang” to sound. (The victim is instructed in their starting objectives to “discreetly let the host know when they have completed their objectives.”)
• When the lights come back on, the victim will have fallen down “dead.”
• After the victim has “died,” hand Grim masking tape or chalk, so that they can outline the position of the body on the floor or ground. *If Grim is not assigned to anyone, then the victim will play the role of Grim for the second half of the party.
• Hand Grim the “investigation envelope” and have them read the investigation instructions aloud.
• The guests will open their (B) envelopes which will have new information and objectives for the guests to complete now that the murder has occurred.

Stage Four  Evidence Presentation
• When guests have settled down again, Grim has collected all of their evidence and you feel as though most people have completed their objectives, hand Grim the evidence envelope so that they can present the findings of the evidence at the crime scene to the guests.
• It is best if the evidence is then laid on a table so that everyone may see it.
• Give your guests additional time to review the evidence. You may want to make multiple copies of the evidence so that it can be seen by everyone.
• Hand out the ‘Who Dunnit’ answer sheets and ask everyone to complete them and hand them back to you during this time.

Stage Five  The Solution
• When all the ‘Who Dunnit’ sheets are handed in, ask Grim to read the solution aloud to the guests.
  • Using the tally sheet included, calculate who the winners are and award the certificates.

Willow’s Magical Answers

Havoc in Town To Result In Banishment

In the last decade, Transylvania has become a community of peaceful coexistence between the mortal and the supernatural. This harmony was struck under the rule of Dracula who thought it pertinent to, “avoid giving the humans a reason to band together and attack our kind.”

Recently, this harmony has become upset with such infractions as noise disturbances, defacing of the town cemetery and random murders. The humans are starting to suspect foul play from someone other than their mortal counterparts.

To avoid an attack on the supernatural community, Dracula has vowed to find the culprit and threatened banishment of the individual responsible for these crimes. This has calmed the police chief’s demands, but will not last long if Dracula does not come through on his promise.
As the bank owner in the town of Deadwood, you do business with many of the people in the town and also some of the participants of the Deadwood Poker Tournament. One of your foremost clients is Harry High-Stakes (the Deadwood Saloon owner). In order to get the saloon established and operating in its first year, you have loaned Harry a substantial amount of money. Although the saloon appears to be doing very well, you are uncertain why Harry is continually delinquent and sometimes misses his payments on his loan. Just last month, Harry was late again on his payment and you warned him that you will have to put his saloon into foreclosure if he cannot repay the money he owes on the loan by next month. You suspect that Harry is throwing the Deadwood Poker Tournament in order to get enough money so that he can repay his debt. This will be an important week to see if you will gain your money back from Harry’s loan or if you will gain control over the saloon.

Because Harry is such a difficult and delinquent client, you hope that you will gain control over the saloon. If the saloon becomes the bank’s property, you speculate that you may have a very wealthy buyer in Montgomery Money, an investor from the East. Because of Montgomery’s reputation, you are certain that you will make a healthy profit off of selling the saloon to Montgomery and he will be consistent and reliable when making his loan payments.

In addition to all the excitement of the tournament, your bank was held up at gun point. Banker Bonnie (your wife) was watching the bank over the noon hour while you were meeting with Harry about his payments. Because of the high ante for the poker tournament, you are convinced that the robber must have been a gambler who was trying to accumulate enough money to pay for the entry fee. Since you view Sheriff Sam (the sheriff) as a very lazy individual, you plan on taking matters into your own hands when it comes to finding the culprit of the bank robbery and bringing them to justice! In addition, you do not believe that Sheriff Sam is a moral character as well. Just this past week, you saw Sheriff Sam taking money from Harry High-Stakes. While you do not know the details of the transaction, the secretive nature in which the money was exchanged suggests that it was not for an honest reason.

As the Deadwood Poker Tournament Party quickly approaches, you are looking forward to attending for a few reasons. First, the party will be a perfect place for you to talk business with Montgomery Money about his intentions on investing in the saloon if your bank gains control of it. Second, you plan to figure out which one of the poker players may have robbed your bank and you plan to bring them to justice! And lastly, by the end of the night, you will know whether Harry will have enough money to pay off his debt to you or if the saloon will be yours!

Acting and Dressing Your Part: As the bank owner of Deadwood, you are a businessman first. Your bank and your money come before everything, including your wife Bonnie. Since you will be using the party to for business matters, you will want to dress dignified for the night. Consistent with the times, you may consider a button down shirt, vest, ascot and hat (bowler, derby, slouch, gambler or other). Popular of the time period, you may also consider adding in facial hair. For more ideas on how to dress and a glossary of wild western words and phrases to use at the party, please see www.nightofmystery.com and murderatthedeadwoodsaloon.com

For Beginning of Party
(taken from another mystery)

Objectives At The Start Of The Party
These are things that are in your best interest to do before the evening goes much further. Be aware of what others around you are doing as well!

• Tell Harry High-Stakes (the saloon owner) that you need the money he owes to the bank by tomorrow or the bank will have to retake the saloon.

• If asked, insist that you may have to foreclose on the saloon if Harry High-Stakes doesn’t make enough money by hosting the tournament.

• Tell Montgomery Money (an investor) that you may have a business proposition for him depending on how the evening turns out.

• Ask Sheriff Sam (the sheriff) if he has any leads on who robbed your bank earlier this week.

• Question some of the gamblers to see what they were doing during the noon hour earlier this week when the bank was robbed.

• Ask Jesse Wales and Black Barbara (two outlaws) why they are in town this week.

• When asked about your wife’s actions, insist she can do as she pleases! (But be secretly concerned.)

• If Banker Bonnie questions your relationship, insist that you are only trying to provide a better life for her.

• If anyone approaches you with information about your bank robbery, question their sources and motives.

For After The Murder
(taken from another mystery)

MURDER AT THE DEADWOOD SALOON

Banker Bob

Things You Know:

This is information not known to many—and possibly only YOU. Use it wisely in your scheming and bribery or hide it to help maintain your innocence.

- You are about to foreclose on the Deadwood Saloon if Harry High-Stakes (the saloon owner) cannot repay his debt to you.
- Earlier this week, you saw Harry High-Stakes (the saloon owner) handing Sheriff Sam (the sheriff) money. For what reason, you are not sure.
- Earlier tonight, you witnessed Banker Bonnie (your wife), talking to Black Barbara (an outlaw).

Objectives After The Murder:

These are things that are in your best interest to do to help solve the murder. Be aware of what others around you are doing as well!

- Find the murderer while maintaining your innocence.
- Ask Sheriff Sam how much money the killer is paying him to keep his mouth shut. (Sam is known to take bribes.)
- Accuse Harry High-Stakes of bribing Sheriff Sam so he will not be found guilty of murder. If Harry denies it, find out the real reason he is bribing the sheriff.
- If asked, admit the saloon will go to Henrietta High-Stakes (Harry's wife) if Harry is found guilty of murder and put in jail.
- If anyone has information on Montgomery Money (your potential investor), find out what they know. You may have to pay them to get their information.
- Defend Banker Bonnie publicly, but question her privately on her ties to Black Barbara.

If Banker Bonnie threatens to leave you, question where she will get the funds to live.
