Holly Jolly Company Folly

A festive night of cocktails, chaos, and corporate cutthroater.

It's the end-of-year holiday party at JingleTech, the novelty tech company known for its tinsel-covered gadgets and snow-globe culture. CEO Kris Krangle is pulling out all the stops—catered cider, bonus envelopes, and even a surprise no one saw coming.

There'll be cocktails, carols, corporate kudos... and just maybe, a killer in the crowd.

Profits are down, layoffs loom, and behind every candy cane smile hides a cutthroat agenda. Could it be the CFO cutting corners? The receptionist denied their retirement moment? The social strategist stealing company time?

Or the accountant balancing more than just the books?

When one employee drops dead mid-toast, it's up to everyone to sleuth through the seasonal sabotage and unwrap the truth..

Join us for a merry night of mingling, motives, and murder. Because this holiday party's got everything—mistletoe, mayhem, and a murder you won't want to miss.

HOST GUIDE

Thank you for choosing Holly Jolly Company Folly

We are confident that you will find this comprehensive packet provides everything you need to run your very own murder mystery party—one that will have your guests talking for weeks, if not longer.

This murder mystery experience is designed to be easy to run and fun to play for all the guests involved. The game is played with all of your guests having active roles in the game and each guest having objectives to complete. These objectives keep the party from being pre-scripted and allow your guests to draw their own conclusions as to the motives and the identity of the murderer. This format also allows for great mingling among your guests and ensures they all feel included. Before the night is through, each guest will have discovered that they have a motive for killing the victim and be inclined to protect their innocence as well as seek out the murderer. To add to the experience and suspense of the night, the murder happens during the party, not before, as in some other murder mystery games. The victim is also allowed to play along after they “die,” since they have no clue who murdered them. Holly Jolly Company Folly is certain to be a hit with all of your guests.

The following pages contain a simple list of things you need to do as host in order to have the party run smoothly. Once the party is going, it is up to the guests to make the most of it—something you will be surprised at how well they do.

Choosing the right version:

Gender Counts:

- For 20+ guests: 20+ gender-neutral.
- For 15-20 guests: 20 gender-neutral.
- For 10-15 guests: 15 gender-neutral.
- For 8-12 guests: 12 gender-neutral.

Can I upgrade or downgrade between versions after purchase? Unfortunately, you cannot. With the exception of moving from the 15-20 guest version to the 20+ version, upgrading between mysteries is not an option, which is why we encourage getting an accurate guest count before purchasing.

How do I get an accurate guest count? It is recommended that you send out the general invite with an RSVP date of two weeks before the party. After your guests RSVP positive, you can send them their character sheet and other party information.

You can download an invite at: <http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations>

Is this mystery suitable for youths and/or church groups? Yes. Our site offers “clean” versions of a few other mysteries on our site: www.nightofmystery.com. Please refer to those when hosting a party for more conservative crowds.

Assigning Characters

- As host, you will need to decide upon a character for each of your guests. The easiest way to assign the characters is to read the descriptions and match each one with the guest you feel suits that particular character best. They will be listed in this host's guide, along with a sheet that will help you assign the characters.
- WHO CAN I ELIMINATE WITHOUT RUINING THE MYSTERY? If you do not have 20 guests attending, the game can be played without the following characters: This information will be included with mystery purchase.
- Because this party is dependent on a minimum number of people showing up, you will want to determine ahead of time which guests are attending before assigning characters.
- An accurate guest count is important. It is recommended that you send out the general invitation with an RSVP date of two weeks before the party. After your guests have accepted the invitation, you can send them their character sheet and other party information.
- You can download an invitation proforma at: <http://www.nightofmystery.com/invitations>
- The killer will not know they are the murderer until they open their second envelope at the party.
- The victim will not know they are the victim until they get to the party. The victim will not have a list of objectives for after the murder. Also, listed in their first set of objectives is to, "fall down dead when the lights go off."
- The victim after "death": The victim will play the role of Detective/investigator for the second half of the party. Following their "death" the victim will get up and the host can then explain that there will be an investigator for the second half (the victim). The victim/investigator will then read the "investigation directions" to the crowd. You will have prepared the investigator's "B envelope," so the guest will know what to do next and how to proceed. Since the investigator's main role takes place after the murder, it is ok if the investigator is eliminated from the first half of the party and only plays the second half. Additionally, the victim does not know who killed them or why, so the victim can assume the role of the investigator for the second half. You can also have an additional badge and/or gun, hat, etc. for this guest to help them distinguish themselves as the investigator for the second half of the party.
  - As host, who should I be? Information included with the mystery purchase.
  - Ideas for assigning couples: Information included with the mystery purchase.

HOST GUIDE

Some Frequently Asked Questions

- Can I run this as a first-time host? First-time hosts need not be wary. Night of Mystery parties have everything you need to throw a successful party and are designed to be easy-to-run.
- CAN THE HOST PLAY ALONG WITHOUT KNOWING WHO THE VICTIM AND/OR MURDERER ARE? YES!!! Unlike some other mystery parties, we have designed our materials so that the hosts can play along! As host, you will read the host's guide in full to ensure that you are setting the game up correctly WITHOUT letting you know who the murderer is! If you wish to know the murderer, you can simply read the solution.
- Will a murder happen AT the party? *YES again! We found this adds to the excitement, intrigue, and fun of the party! It's another reason why we are a stickler for "no spoilers on social media" – we can't have pictures of the victims for fear of ruining the intrigue for others!
- How can I pick the "right" party theme? We always recommend you pick the theme that you are most passionate about hosting and/or you believe your guests will be most excited about coming to! We do our best to include multiple sizes within each party theme to accommodate that.
  - If having specific gendered roles is important to you, please see the gender counts for the version you plan on ordering.
  - Additionally, if you are worried about a mystery being too racy, please see our clean versions. THIS ONE IS NOT FOR YOU!
  - If specific characters within a mystery are important to you, reach out to support@nightofmystery.com and we can let you know (specifically) which characters are included with the version you are considering.
- Can I run this with my business and/or group organization? With a business license, you can run these mystery parties with your organized group and/or business. Please see our FAQ for more information on business licenses.
- Do you come and run the party? We do not. Our services are in providing YOU with everything you need to throw your party in your own home or venue. IF you have a desire for someone else to run your party, please see our resources page for party planners who have purchased our business license and are licensed to run our parties in your area.
- A Note about Social Media: While we LOVE to see your fun parties – and often highlight and cross-promote those who tag us – we can't have anyone posting pictures of spoilers! This includes, but is not limited to, pictures, videos, or mentions of the victim, murderer, and/or pertinent clues in the game. Since spoiler posts create a calculated loss of business, you can be liable to pay the calculated loss of sales upon discovery of the violation. So keep it fun, crazy, and show us your best spoiler-free content!!! And don't forget to tag us after! #nightofmystery
- How does this work? All of our parties come as a professionally designed 50-125 page pdf. Immediately after completing your order, you will be able to re-login to your account using the username and password you established in the purchasing process. Once in your account, you can download your party (including optional emailable invitations for your guests) for 120 days.

HOST GUIDE

Hosting Tips

- Included with mystery purchase.

Making the Invitations

Each guest must receive: (1) The invitation, (2) JingleTech Journal and (3) their character description.

Preparing Party Materials

- It is best to view and print all of your materials from Adobe Reader, a free application. Be sure you do not use a Preview Application to print or view materials.
- For the name tag and label pages (optional), they are best printed on adhesive label paper. Name tag and label pages are compatible with Avery labels 15163, 18163, 5163, 5263, 5523, 5663, 5963, 8163, 8253, 8463, 8663 and 8763.
- Make name tags for the guests. You can print the name tags onto adhesive label paper or print on regular paper, trim them, and include a pin with the name tags so the guests can secure them to their outfits.
- Photocopy the printout of the money onto green paper. You will need as many copies as there are guests attending. Trim the money and bundle the notes in packages of $500.
—To skip this step, you can purchase and use fake/play money or coins.
—It is helpful to bundle your money using a paper clip.
- Cut the sheet with two in half, and then in half again.
- Cut the “A Objectives” sheets in half on the dashed lines. DO NOT cut the “B Objectives” sheets in half.
- Label two envelopes with each character’s name. Label one envelope with an (A) and one with a (B) for each character. OPTIONAL: We have formatted some labels that you can adhere to your envelopes, so that you will not need to label them yourself. Please see the label pages in the Mystery Materials pdf.

In the (A) envelopes place: a name tag, safety pin(s) to attach the name tag, a bundle of money and the half-sheet of the character’s objective sheet that has objectives for the beginning of the party.

- You will need to prepare the Detective “B” envelope. Insert Detective name tag, evidence, and “B” objectives into their envelope. (You do not need to add money, as the guest will have money from the first half of the party.) After “death,” the victim will assume role of Detective and will need this information.

- In a separate envelope place the Investigation Instructions and the (labeled 2). Label the envelope as “Investigation.”
- In a separate envelope place the Evidence Presentation. Label it as “Evidence.”

HOST GUIDE

- An average party takes 2-4 hours. The party length will depend on a number of factors, including the number of guests, if you are serving dinner, how well your guests mingle, etc.

Stage One- The Guests Arrive

- Have the guests' name tags, bundle of money, and their (A) envelopes available for them.

Stage Two- Introduction

- After all of the guests have arrived, hand Kris Krangle the Introduction and have them read it aloud.
- Have time for guests to mingle and complete their objectives.
  - This may require 30-60 minutes depending on how well your guests know each other.
  - If serving dinner, this may be a good time for dinner to be served.

Stage Three- Murder and Investigation

- When guests start to settle down and you are sure the victim has completed all of their objectives, arrange to have the lights go out. \*The victim is instructed in their starting objectives to "discreetly let the host know when they have completed their objectives."*
- When the lights come back on, the victim will have fallen down "dead."
- After the victim has "died," you (as the host) can outline the position of the body on the floor or ground.
- Announce to the crowd that Detective will now be joining you to investigate. Have the victim rise and assume the role of Detective.
- Hand Detective the "investigation envelope" and have them read the instructions aloud to the guests.
- Hand the guests their (B) envelopes. This will have new information and objectives for the guests to complete now that the murder has occurred.

Stage Four- Evidence Presentation

- When guests have settled down again, and Detective has collected all of their evidence, hand Detective the evidence envelope so that they can present the findings of the evidence to the guests.
- It is best if the evidence is then laid on a table so that everyone may see it.
  - Give your guests additional time to review the evidence. You may want to make multiple copies of the evidence so that it can be seen by everyone.
  - Hand out the accusation sheets. Have everyone complete and hand them back to you.

Stage Five- The Solution

- After all of the accusation sheets are handed in, use the tally sheet to calculate the winners.
- Have Detective read the solution aloud to the guests.
- Award the certificates to the winners!

A MESSAGE FROM THE CEO: KRIS KRANGLE

Season's greetings, team! As the sleigh bells ring and the cocoa flows, I want to thank each of you for making this year a merry one at JingleTech. We've hit a few frosty patches, but with bold ideas and smarter shifts, we'll soar higher than Santa's sleigh next year.

There's talk of changes ahead, but tonight is about joy and togetherness. Let's raise a glass to what we've built—and to a surprise I've planned for someone very special.

Stay bright,

Kris

STAFF SPOTLIGHT: SHILOH DOBBINS

After decades of dedicated service and front-desk cheer, Shiloh Dobbins is retiring! Shiloh has been the gatekeeper of joy at JingleTech since our startup days. We had something truly magical planned for their sendoff. Sadly, not everyone got to see the surprise in time...

Regardless, Shiloh, we raise our mugs to you. You're the reason so many guests walked away with a smile and why half our packages never got lost. You'll always be JingleTech royalty.

DEPARTMENT HEADLINES

Marketing Meltdown? Frankie Ford insists everything is "on brand," but, after the JingleSync campaign fizzled, fingers are pointing...and not just at the glitter.

Finance on Thin Ice CFO Greer Styles released a report blaming three departments for plummeting profits. But some say the real problem might be closer to Greer's own ledger...

Culture Over Cash? VP Rowan Black defends the value of morale and themed Fridays. With budget cuts looming, will joy metrics make the cut?

Warehouse Woes Inventory's gone missing and no one's taking the blame. Former manager Morgan Reed wants their job back. Current manager Micah Rojas is... enjoying the perks.

Jordan Rowe - Receptionist. New at the front desk, but already tuned into the gossip. Jordan may smile sweetly, but nothing gets past them.

Shiloh Dobbins - Retiring Receptionist. Years of loyal service, and not enough thanks. Shiloh's ready for their sendoff—and not afraid to make noise if it doesn't come.

Morgan Reed - Warehouse Assistant. Once a manager, now demoted and determined. Morgan's quietly watching, waiting, and working toward a return to power.

Devon Yamada - New Hire. Eager to impress and curious about everything. Devon's asking questions—some of which might hit a little too close to home.

Lexi Hale - Bartender. Back for one night only—serving drinks and sharp glances. Lexi's smile hides stories... and maybe a few scores to settle.

Enjoy the night, but keep your candy canes close — not everything at JingleTech is sweet this season.

Merry mystery to all, and to all a good sleuth!

Banker Bob

As the bank owner in the town of Deadwood, you do business with many of the people in the town and also some of the participants of the Deadwood Poker Tournament. One of your foremost clients is Harry High-Stakes (the Deadwood Saloon owner). In order to get the saloon established and operating in it's first year, you have loaned Harry a substantial amount of money. Although the saloon appears to be doing very well, you are uncertain why Harry is continually delinquent and sometimes misses his payments on his loan. Just last month, Harry was late again on his payment and you warned him that you will have to put his saloon into foreclosure if he cannot repay the money he owes on the loan by next month. You suspect that Harry is throwing the Deadwood Poker Tournament in order to get enough money so that he can repay his debt. This will be an important week to see if you will gain your money back from Harry's loan or if you will gain control over the saloon.

Because Harry is such a difficult and delinquent client, you hope that you will gain control over the saloon. If the saloon becomes the bank's property, you speculate that you may have a very wealthy buyer in Montgomery Money, an investor from the East. Because of Montgomery's reputation, you are certain that you will make a healthy profit off of selling the saloon to Montgomery and he will be consistent and reliable when making his loan payments.

In addition to all the excitement of the tournament, your bank was held up at gun point. Banker Bonnie (your wife) was watching the bank over the noon hour while you were meeting with Harry about his payments. Because of the high ante for the poker tournament, you are convinced that the robber must have been a gambler who was trying to accumulate enough money to pay for the entry fee. Since you view Sheriff Sam (the sheriff) as a very lazy individual, you plan on taking matters into your own hands when it comes to finding the culprit of the bank robbery and bringing them to justice! In addition, you do not believe that Sheriff Sam is a moral character as well. Just this past week, you saw Sheriff Sam taking money from Harry High-Stakes. While you do not know the details of the transaction, the secretive nature in which the money was exchanged suggests that it was not for an honest reason.

As the Deadwood Poker Tournament Party quickly approaches, you are looking forward to attending for a few reasons. First, the party will be a perfect place for you to talk business with Montgomery Money about his intentions on investing in the saloon if your bank gains control of it. Second, you plan to figure out which one of the poker players may have robbed your bank and you plan to bring them to justice! And lastly, by the end of the night, you will know whether Harry will have enough money to pay off his debt to you or if the saloon will be yours!

Acting and Dressing Your Part: As the bank owner of Deadwood, you are a businessman first. Your bank and your money come before everything, including your wife Bonnie. Since you will be using the party for business matters, you will want to dress dignified for the night. Consistent with the times, you may consider a button down shirt, vest, ascot and hat (bowler, derby, slouch, gambler or other). Popular of the time period, you may also consider adding in facial hair. For more ideas on how to dress and a glossary of wild western words and phrases to use at the party, please see www.nightofmystery.com and murderatthedeadwoodsaloon.com
