

The background of the invitation is a parchment-like paper with a torn, irregular edge. It is decorated with various pirate-themed elements: a large cutlass on the left, a colorful parrot on the right, a treasure chest with gold coins and pearls at the bottom left, a human skull and a seashell in the bottom center, and a wooden barrel with a compass and a smoking pipe at the bottom right. The top of the parchment is framed by a dark wooden sign with white text. The background beyond the parchment shows a sunset over the ocean with palm fronds in the corners.
